

FREE: Ice Jam Training

You are invited to a virtual ice jam training session hosted by the Pennsylvania Silver Jackets Team, an interagency flood risk management team. The training is geared towards personnel responsible for reporting and mitigating ice jams. Two of the same training sessions are being offered.

The Ice Jam Training will include the following topics:

- *Ice jam overview
- *Mitigation techniques and case studies
- *Ice observer reporting
- *Technical and mitigation resources
- *Technical panel available for questions

Training is free but registration is required.
